Goshen, Indiana

2 blocks North of U.S. 33 at corner of Indiana and Chicago Avenues • 574-534-2502

Monday-Saturday 9am-5pm (closed Sundays & Holidays)
www.oldbagfactory.com

Goshen, Indiana, located in the heart of Amish country, is the perfect location to serve as your central hub while touring north central Indiana. Several area destinations are less than 30 minutes from Goshen, including Middlebury, Shipshewana, Nappanee, Warsaw, Winona Lake, South Bend, Notre Dame and several others.

While touring the area, take a moment to admire our classic courthouse in the heart of town. Walk past the unique "police booth" on the corner, used to protect the town from bank robbers in the late 1930s. Our Carnegie Library was the first of its kind in Indiana and now houses the City Offices. Feel free to enter and explore this historic building.

In 1983, the downtown Historic District was placed on the National Register of Historic Places. Many residential streets are lined with stately maple trees, giving Goshen the nickname The Maple City. These great maples give lush shade in summer and create a spectacular show of color in autumn.

Goshen's downtown shopping district reflects a tradition of quality and merchants who render friendly, specialized services. Many of the businesses date back a century or more.

Visitors can enjoy the work of local artisans at the Old Bag Factory, a restored manufacturing facility that features quality handmade items. The historic character of this complex provides a unique and charming setting for the specialty shops it houses. Watch Dick Lehman turn a lump of clay into a beautiful piece of pottery, artisans creating wooden masterpieces at Swartzendruber Furniture Galleries, or view the exquisite selection of hand-made quilts at Quilt Designs. Like antiques? Visit Downtown Goshen or browse while visiting the Old Bag Factory.

Goshen has a wide variety of eateries, from quaint cafés and restaurants, to Amish cooking and fine dining. In Goshen, you'll find most of these and all the national chains along the Lincolnway (US33).

Approaching Goshen from the northwest on Lincolnway, dining options range from a local pub to a Dairy Queen and The Refinery Café. In town, Goshen is home to two nationally acclaimed diners, The Olympia Candy Kitchen and the South Side Soda Shop plus County Seat Café. If you are headed into town from the south, there are several additional establishments, including Double D's Hometown Bar & Grill, Good B's, Ponderosa, Peterson's Steak & Seafood House and many more. Neighboring Middlebury offers you Das Dutchman Essenhaus.

Linway Plaza is located just a few blocks off Main Street (US33) on Lincoln Avenue. Here you will find the local Cineplex and a selection of additional restaurants.

The Maple City Greenway, a network of bicycle/pedestrian paths and hiking trails, is one of the most comprehensive systems of its types in the Midwest. The Pumpkinvine Nature Trail, a multi-purpose linear park running from Goshen to Shipshewana for approximately 17 miles, is still under development, but two sections are open to the public. Add to this, miles of scenic nature and cross-country skiing trails, parks, great fishing, golf and canoeing, and you begin to appreciate the diversity of this wonderful town.

Welcome to the RV Capital of the Word! For every 10 RV's you see, six of them are built right here in Elkhart County. In fact, the county produces 60% of the nation's recreational vehicles and many manufacturers offer factory tours.

Each July, more than 300,000 visitors flock to the Elkhart County 4-H Fair, one of the largest county fairs in the nation. At the Michiana Mennonite Relief sale, held the 4th Saturday in September, beautiful quilts, a variety of items, and even a house are auctioned off. Great food and crafts can also be purchased.

There's a lot to see and do in northern Indiana, and Goshen is in the center of it all... "In the Heart of Indiana Amish Country."
